

Limpopo Province Learnership Graduation End User Computing THURSDAY 09 MARCH 2017

On 9 March 2017, a graduation ceremony was held at Mount Horeb Uniting Presbyterian Church in Polokwane for 60 unemployed youths from Limpopo Province.

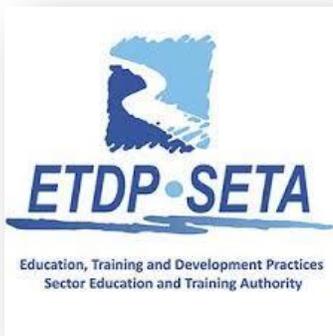

The training provider Xtensive ICT Academy in partnership with the ETDP SETA and the Limpopo Department of Education hosted the Graduation.

The ETDP SETA 2017 Limpopo Ceremony was the culmination of a learnership in End User Computing for 60 Unemployed youth for a National Certificate in Information Technology: End User Computing.

The youths achieved valuable computer skills that have enabled them to integrate information technology into their workplace practices. The effect of this learnership has been to bring the introduce beneficiaries to the use and application of Information Technology in order to enhance the educational and learning experience.

Programme Stakeholders

ETDP SETA, Limpopo Dept. of Education, Xtensive.

The Graduation Ceremony was attended by the various stakeholders of the programme in particular the ETDP SETA has a strong presence at this showcase event. The ETDP SETA funded this learnership programme as was represented on the by Mr. Isaia Mphaphali, The Senior Provincial Manager for ETDP SETA Limpopo.

Mr. Mphaphali delivered a moving Key Note Address where he provided an overview of National Educational and Training Landscape, Insight into the structure and processes that drive the educational agenda in our country.

The Limpopo Department of Education was represented by Ms. Diana Boshamane, Mr. Lebohang Kekana, Ms. Sara Mabala and Ms. Sarlena Mosima Tloane.

The Gauteng Department of Education has demonstrated its unwavering commitment to the skills development and continuing upliftment of its education system, schools and the continuous upliftment of the educators through various initiatives.

Learner Representative Tema Magedeleine Lethaba thanked the ETDP SETA for the opportunity she got to get into the learnership.

Graduates were congratulated and encouraged to keep up their information technology skills through quality and innovative educational practices. Graduates were inspired to maintain ethos of Life Long Learning.

This programme was made possible by the ETDP SETA who provided the funding for this programme. Stakeholders of this programme include the ETDP SETA, the Limpopo Department of Education, the training provider Xtensive Academy and the employed educators who participated in the programme.

The 60 Graduates were presented with a National Certificate in Information Technology: End User Computing SAQA ID 61591 NQF Level 3.

